

Smoke Outlook

Southern New Mexico Black Fire

6/12 - 6/13

Issued by Wildland Fire Air Quality Response Program on June 12, 2022 at 07:14 AM MDT

Fire

The Black Fire is at approximately 305,462 acres with 42% containment. The southern edge of the fire perimeter is where most of the growth has been this last week. It is burning in the Aldo Leopold Wilderness.

Smoke

Most of Southwest NM should again experience overall Good air quality as the fire progressed relatively slowly yesterday and will likely perform the same today. With mostly westerly winds areas to the east of the active fire will bear the brunt of the smoke. Silver City and the Gila Cliff Dwellings should continue to have overall good air quality today and tomorrow. Truth or Consequences should see good air quality today and tomorrow with Moderate smoke around sunset both days. The Caballo area will probably have smoke in the moderate to USG (unhealthy for sensitive) tonight, and have overall Moderate air quality during both days. Kingston and Hillsboro today will probably have Moderate smoke becoming USG overnight, then Moderate air quality the rest of tomorrow. Winston and Chloride will likely have good air quality today and tomorrow. From San Lorenzo north to Lake Roberts may have Moderate Smoke first thing each morning but have overall good air quality both days.
